He died last night. A difficulty existed between Gordon and his sister, a widow, about some property which she said he had not accounted for as administrator of her deceased husband. They were sparring, when the old man commanded them to stop, and for Gordon to leave the house-this he would not do. Mr. A. took down his gun to compel him to leave, but Gordon sprung at him, laid hold of the gun, and in the scuffle stabbed him in the breast and twice in the lower part of the abdomen, the bowels protruding through these wounds. Mr. A. lingered along in great agony until about midnight, when he expired. Gordon made his escape, and is not yet taken.

THE MOST EXTENSIVE BOOT. SHOE AND TRUNK ESTABLISHMENT IN WASHINTON CITY, Just Opened in Iron Hall.

S. HOOVER has fitted up a attractive style.

HOOVER'S SHOE STORE.—Yesterday we made a visit to the place of business of Mr. S. P. Hoover, in that imposing structure, the Iron Building, on Pennsylvania avenue, between 9th and 10th streets. We have given this notice the modest caption of Shoe Store; but we can truly say that it is a most inviting, and even magnificant, establishment—one highly creditable to the city and to the taste and enterprise of the preprietor. We doubt if there is any of the large business marts of the country an establishment of the kind more extensive, convenient, or beautiful than the one it is our pleasure to notice. The stock of Mr. Hoover is large, and ladies and gentlemen can procure shoes and boots of the most superior quality and at moderate prices. The enterprise of Mr. Hoover should be rewarded by a fashions of the day in the line. In the rear is the ladies' department, which is carpeted with three ply carpeting, sea's and cushions covered with French is, therefore, an unequalled boot and shoe saloon, and the stock therein is at least equal to any in style and manufacture. We were surprised to find so many varieties. There were ladies' high beeled Gaiters, Congress and Button Gaiters, with and without heels; ladies' "Glicerious" slippers, enamelled toilet, carpet, black and bronze French kid and n orocco slippers, Jeffersons and ties, morocco boots of all colors, &c , to suit every taste of the fair purchasers. For gentlemen, there are patent leather and calf skin boo's, aid top and cloth Congress Gaiters, English patent leather and low quartered shoes. Suitable for boys we found youths' patent leather heeled pumps, button leather gaiters, Mun ross, Oxford and English ties, fine calf skin and cork soled boots. For girls, he has also a rich and general variety; and for infants and small children the beautiful little foot coverings are quite elegant.

We were also shown an assortment of excellent shoes for servants. These, with boot-horks, button hooks, and shoe borns, all kinds of trunk, carpet bags, umbrellas, and other articles "to numerous to mention," as Shakspeare says, constitute the material of this magnificent addition to the fine stores on Pennsylvania avenue. The stock is both of home and foreign manufacture, of the best, and sold as cheap as such understandings can be bought in the
